SBA Offers Disaster Assistance to Businesses and Residents Affected by Severe Storms and Flooding in Washoe County, Nevada

Carson City NV. – Governor Brian Sandoval and Nevada Division of Emergency Management Chief Caleb Cage announced today the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) is making low interest federal disaster loans available in Washoe County, Nevada to businesses and residents affected by severe storms and flooding that occurred February 1-25, 2017.

“The State remains committed to support Washoe County residents affected by the severe storms in February,” said DEM Chief Caleb Cage. Affected homeowners should inventory items that have been damaged or destroyed and take advantage of SBA’s low interest disaster loans. Our priority is to restore the communities within Washoe County.”
